Hi, Friends!.. Did you see me in the UNICEF DAY PARADE ?..

Casper THE FRIENDLY GHOST

Marching for UNICEF was de rigueur for the thousands of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut children who participated in the Second Annual UNICEF Day Children's Parade Sunday afternoon Oct 28 Gaily costumed and stepping to the music of the Mother Cabrini High School Drum Corps and the Greenwich High School Cardinal Marching Band youngsters from area schools churches and other community youth groups paraded up Avenue of the Americas from 42nd Street to Central Park There they enjoyed a UNICEF Day Festival with international puppetry, singing, dancing storytelling, and arts and crafts

Coordinators of the parade were two U S Committee interns, Viviane Kanaff and Malania Weiss both of New York City Their success was mirrored in the smiles of countless young faces and in the wide TV radio, and newspaper coverage of the event—the latter as far afield as Washington, D C

Malania Weiss, parade coordinator, and Casper the Friendly Ghost grand marshal led the Parade

Happiness is a sombrero, poncho, and a balloon for this young participant

Students from Public School 58 were among the gleeful marchers

A float made by the High School of Art and Design was one of the highlights of the Parade

Rime Lebow, a folksinger, was one of the performers at the UNICEF Festival in Central Park
